

EXPRESSING OUR THANKS TO GOD

GLORIFYING GOD WITH OUR TIME, TALENT, TREASURE

IMPORTANT
NEW STEWARDSHIP GUIDELINES!

GUIDELINES FOR MEMBERS IN GOOD STANDING

- Previous Year's Stewardship Pledge commitment must be met in full, or the stewardship chairman must be notified for any changes.
- The Current year stewardship pledge card must be filled out and turned in.

MEMBERS IN GOOD STANDING:

- Can use the Cathedral building for sacraments
- Vote in general elections
- Request to be placed on the agenda of general assembly meetings
- Serve on Parish Council

ELIGIBILITY TO VOTE:

- To vote in General Assemblies and Parish Council elections, you must be a "member in good standing". See the guidelines for "Members in Good Standing" above.
- Your stewardship pledge is not required to be fully met, for the year; however, it must be turned in for the current year and fulfilled for the previous year.

STEWARDSHIP PLEDGE CARD:

A pledge card is a good faith commitment to God. If any adjustments / changes need to be made to your pledge, contact Father Tom, or drop a note in the stewardship box in the narthex of the cathedral. Your stewardship pledge, as always, will be fully confidential.
